FOOTNOTES

[1]Northern Kankanay is spoken by approximately 40,000 people in the municipalities of Sagada, Besao, and Tadian in Mountain Province, Philippines. It borders the western edge of the Bontoc area and shares many lexical and structural features with that language.

Wallace, Judy. 1980. Discourse and Script in Northern Kankanay. Studies in Philippine Linguistics 4:1:43-70.